Cesar DeLaCruz also requested to be added as an admin on the V-T facebook page so he can add information.

VIII. Unfinished Business:

- Ad Hoc scholarship committee – President Leon presented a draft scholarship application for review that was submitted by Alex Cantu, chairman of this committee. Discussion held tournaments that will fund the scholarship fund.
- Super Sunday play ideas –President Leon stated he has been doing research through Golf Moose on courses for Sunday play. Unfortunately, Golf Moose only has tee times for weekdays. it is hard to get tee times on golf courses on weekends and prices are high. President Leon will continue to look at golf courses. Discussion held at holding a gathering at the Valley Oaks driving range and using it as a fundraiser.
- Junior Member Guidelines- Lupe Mendoza stated he is working on the guidelines.
- 2025 Yearbook- President Leon is working on the information for Mike Gonzalez, State Yearbook editor is requesting for the Visalia-Tulare Chapter.

IX. New Business:

- Reimburse John Whaley – President Leon states a mistake was made at the Club Championship as to Overall Low Net and entry paid to the State Tournament. Robert Morfin and John Whaley were tied and they went off the scorecard and Robert Morfin won. Robert Morfin advised he would not be able to attend. The spot should have gone to John Whaley. A mistake was made, and the next lower net winner was given the spot for the State Tournament, it should have gone to John Whaley. President Leon states Ric Pino was already reimbursed for attending the State Tournament. Discussion held. M/S/C Tino Serrato/Lupe Mendoza to reimburse John Whaley $310.00.
- NCGA Invoice (5/1/25 thru 9/1/25-President Leon advised he was made aware that an invoice was paid to NCGA that contained Junior members that belonged to Youth on Course (YOC) President Leon contacted NCGA advising the mistake that was made. President Leon was advised our chapter would be credited for the juniors. We should get confirmation of this credit.
- L.A.B. (Lie Angle Balance) purchased from Roger Dunn for the raffle. Tickets are $20.00 per ticket and not be present to win. President Leon had 100 raffle tickets made. He would like to distribute to give Board members to sell. The benefits would go to the Junior Program/Scholarships. Drawing date is November 5, 2025, at Black Bear right before the monthly meeting.
- Policies and Procedures for chapter – President Leon would like the Chapter to prepare policies and procedures, so everyone is clear on policies and different procedures in running the chapter. M/S/C Tino Serrato/Robert Morfin to approve the developing of a policy and procedure document to go with the Bylaws.

- X. Adjournment: M/S/C Tino Serrato/Lupe Mendoza to adjourn the meeting at 7:02 p.m.
